ARGENTINE, KANSAS.

(By Mrs. Ophelia Jackson.)
Miss Hattie Emery left Wednesday evening for a two weeks' visit in Oswego, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lacy left Tuesday night for a visit to Birmingham, Ala., Uniontown, and before returning home will go to Memphis, Tenn. They will be gone three weeks. Sunday, August 14, was the first anniversary of Rev. Bowles' pastorate at the Second Baptist church. A splendid sermon was preached by Rev. Phraim Green Sunday night and Rev. Harris and his congregation and choir went over after their services and gave a collection. Mr. Jefferson Brown of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Grace Forston went to Lawrence, Kas. last Thursday and was married. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Nuttle Tucker and son went to the party. Mrs. Brown is a sister of Mrs. Tucker. Mr. Clinton Weaver and Miss Susie Brashears were married at the parsonage Saturday evening, August 13. Rev. Harris officiated. A very pleasant surprise party was given Rev. Bowles on Monday evening, August 14, by the members of his church. They brought many good things and an enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. Hattie Cotton left Tuesday morning for Ocala, Fla., to attend the Old Settlers' Reunion which will be in session for three days. The sermons preached by Rev. D. Harris on last Sunday were impressive and instructive. His text Sunday morning was: "None of these things moved me," and on Sunday night, "No greater love has man than this that he would lay down his life for his friends." He related many incidents portraying the love of friends and as he told the beautiful story of Damon and Pythias stillness reigned over the congregation.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The annual tennis meet between Kansas City and St. Louis is scheduled to begin at nine o'clock Monday morning, August 21st, on the courts at 17th and Woodland.
